RE: William Dwight Landreneau
30-P Campaign Finance Report filed late

To Whom It May Concern:

I am requesting a waiver of the late fee for the 30-P Candidates Finance Report for October 5, 2020. To my knowledge, the report was filed timely on Monday September 28, 2020 at 10:30 am.

I am a senior woman with forty-three years of banking experience. My husband's candidacy for Mayor of the Town of Washington was our first entry into the world of politics. I had reviewed the campaign reporting schedule and to my knowledge submitted all reports timely. I recognized the importance of this aspect of my husband's campaign.

My daughter gave birth to a new granddaughter on September 18, 2020. I was scheduled to spend a week with her beginning on September 28th. So, I prepared the report and submitted it on the morning of September 28th before I left town for a week.

I remember having trouble submitting the report due to the numerical code required to be completed before upload. I was using the numbers at the top of my keyboard. I changed to the number pad on the right and the Ethics system accepted the code and the report.

When I filed the next report, the filing went smoothly and I received a notice that the report was accepted. Being the first time using the Board of Ethics system, I did not realize that I should have received a notice of file upload on September 28.

On November 13, I received a letter informing me that an error was made on the Campaign Finance Report that I filed on October 26, 2020. I contacted Jennifer Yoho by email and was informed that no report was received prior to October 26, 2020. I was immediately able to rescan the 9/28/20 report and submitted it on 11/17/20 at 11:27 am.

My request for a waiver is based on the fact that I did submit the first Campaign Finance Report timely. All other reports have been submitted on time as well. I am aware of the seriousness of campaign finance rules. I would never have done anything to jeopardize my husband's campaign or his reputation. Please consider this request for a waiver of the late fee.

William Dwight Landreneau, Mayor of the Town of Washington, joins me in requesting this waiver.
